Owing to the scarcity of good attractions, the Barre opera house will inaugurate a new policy, beginning next Monday night, March 13. At the present time there are very few of the better class of attractions playing New England, outside of Boston. For this reason, the bookings at the opera house are very light. The Strong theatre at Burlington, the opera house at Rutland and hundreds of theatres all over the country are running the cheaper class of entertainment. Patrons of the opera house will see the same acts and pictures shown at Burlington and other large houses. The first performance will start at seven o'clock each evening. The price of admission will be 10 cents. Children, accompanied by parents, 5 cents.

TOO LATE TO BE CLASSIFIED.

CHELSEA.

Edward O. Mattoon, G. Clinton Bowen and Charles Rowe were in Williamstown on business Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Sanborn are rejoicing over the advent of an eight-pound daughter, born to them Wednesday, the eighth inst.

Hale W. Mattoon was called to Bradford recently by the death of Mrs. Lorenza C. Blake, who was the grandmother of the late Mrs. Mattoon.

Miss Myrtle E. Bixby has so far recovered from a week's illness with the gripper as to be able to return to her accustomed duties, at the Bixby store again.

Leslie A. Bragg has been seriously ill with tonsillitis for several days and confined to his house, and his housekeeper, Mrs. Henry Ladd, is now ill with the same trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt S. Spooner of Montpelier were in town Thursday and Friday and were guests of the former's sisters, Mrs. Harry O. Cole and Mrs. O. D. Tracy and their families.

Edward M. Smith, who has been seriously ill for some time, has been failing of late and since his trouble is an affection of the kidneys, his recovery seems very doubtful at this time.

Madison Carey, who has spent the winter lumbering in Brainerd, came home last week to remain for a time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Carey, who live on the west hill.

Harold Camp, the older son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Camp, who recently moved from this village to the Giles house near the Dennis Giles mill, has been dangerously ill with pneumonia for several days.
